CONTESSA AZZURRA (LA)

A director and an unknown young actress fall in love on the set of a silent film but are later forces to part. The years pass and she goes on to become a famous movie star. When they meet again by change, they realize that little has changed between them and that they still love each other. But once again they are separated, this time by the war,which will tragically rob him of his life and leave her broken-hearted.
