

PAZZO D'AMORE

Roberta and Marco, who attends secretly for months, have convinced their parents to spend the holidays in a "Club Village" on the Calabrian coast. And here our protagonists at the airport, ready to go for a dream vacation, for part of the magic of turquoise seas, to walk along pristine beaches, relax in the shade of lush Mediterranean plants.

The story highlights the natural beauty of Calabria, the importance of family, the birth of a relationship of friendship and solidarity between people from very different walks of life, the strength of the love of two young simple and honest. Music and songs are the backdrop to the plot of this film.
