SOLAMENTE NERO

In a small village the body of a schoolgirl is found in a meadow. The murderer is never caught and years later a young professor (Stefano D'Arcangeli) goes to visit his brother who is a parish priest. There, he finds out that his brother receives anonymous letters and that each of them is followed by a murder. He then discovers a clue which will enable him to resolve the mystery.

Original Music by: STELVIO CIPRIANI.

This magnificent mystery-horror stars SUSPIRIA's Stefania Casini as an unassuming, and alluring, antiques dealer who gets caught up in a series of slasher-killings that may or may not point a finger towards someone she already knows. Beautifully shot, and as colourfully produced as any of the finest examples of the genre, this cat-and-mouse creeper is an underrated Italian classic that is packed full of inventive splatter set pieces, erotic allure and atmospheric intensity.

Following the success of "IL GATTO DAGLI OCCHI DI GIADA aka WATCH ME WHEN I KILL", Bido packs this masterpiece: a Venice in winter, always very cinematographic, remarkable cast. A thriller in which Nicholas Roeg owed something and not just him.
